WEEK 2: SPECIALIZED TRACKS

I. LAW & INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS

INTRODUCTION

The European Union (EU) is the greatest political experiment in modern democracy. Never before have so many democracies experienced such level of political and economic integration. The first steps towards the EU were taken in the aftermath of the Second World War and today it includes 28 European countries that closely cooperate in numerous areas from common rules for businesses and people's movement to climate, health, security and external relations. Through increasing cooperation the EU has transformed centuries-old enemies into strategic partners. Yet despite this undeniable success, the future existence of the EU cannot be taken for granted. In the LAW & IR track of the Summer School, you will learn about how the EU works and how it affects everyday life in Europe and Europe's neighborhood. You will also get a chance to tackle the problems and discuss the challenges that the EU is facing in the globalized world.

Few years earlier than the UE, the United Nations was established on the founding pillars of peace and security, human rights, and development. The UN has since become perhaps the most emblematic of all multilateral organizations. Advocates call the UN a place for humanity to unite for peace, while others have deemed it naïve and idealistic. Some critics accuse the UN of serving only the interests of powerful states, while others regard it as a bureaucratic and meddling institution. So how successful has the UN really been? In these sessions you will also explore the United Nations' history, successes and challenges from both a geopolitical and legal perspective, using a combination of seminar, case studies and a short model UN simulation.
