

Position 2: Political Science

Rank: Assistant Professor

Subfield: Political Economy of Development

Application Deadline: January 21st, 2019

Start Date: September 2019

Salary: Competitive

IE University's School of Global and Public Affairs (IEGPA) seeks applicants for a position at the rank of Assistant Professor (tenure-track) in the Political Economy of Development. The successful candidate should have a strong publication record in top peer-reviewed outlets, or the proven potential of producing them in the coming two years. We are especially interested in scholars whose research interests deal with technological change and innovation.

The ideal candidate would have solid teaching experience, and should be acquainted with teaching methods focused on critical thinking, problem solving, and the latest pedagogical approaches such as flipped classroom and blended education. He/She is expected to teach courses in Development Studies, Political Economy, and Research Methods at both the undergraduate and Master level.

Beyond these traditional academic criteria, we seek academics with the capacity to engage in policy relevant work, and with a commitment to institution-building: applying for research grants, participating in affiliated research centers and academic programs, and expanding the IEGPA's current network and partnerships.

Applications should include a cover letter and vita, a job market paper, three academic references, and evidence of teaching excellence (e.g. teaching evaluations). Candidates must have a PhD from a recognized Department of Political Science, or demonstrate clear evidence that the PhD will be complete by July, 2019. Please send all materials to IESGPA2@ie.edu by January 21st, 2019.

The IEGPA is part of IE University, located in Madrid and Segovia, Spain; and is a full-member of the Association of Professional Schools in International Affairs (APSIA). We are committed to world-class professional education and academic research in the social sciences, public policy, and international affairs.

We offer a competitive remuneration package, attractive teaching commitments, and an enriching and cosmopolitan work environment in the heart of Madrid. Our working language is English, and both our faculty and student body are highly diverse and international. IE University is strongly committed to non-discriminatory hiring practices, and encourages applications from individuals who will further expand the diversity of our faculty.
