↓ Study in Madrid

IE María de Molina^A

Our center in Madrid covers several buildings around its historical headquarters between the streets of María de Molina and Serrano. María de Molina 31 Bis was the headquarters of the Iberia Company and it is one of the protected buildings in Madrid. Totally urban and very close to the financial area, it is a great starting point for a stroll down to the heart of Salamanca Quarter. Nearby you can find the Museo Nacional de Ciencias Naturales, and la Casa Museo Lázaro Galdiano, one of the most unique private collections in Madrid. It is worth the visit, even if it's just to check out the house and its garden.

IE Tower^B

With a perfect location in the heart of Madrid's Financial District, our innovative and sustainable project reflects the spirit of IE University through the construction of an urban and tech-based facility. Furthermore, its ideal proximity to this booming business district will allow our students to seamlessly interact with major corporations and businesses.
